the Lunar

To a swell guy - with a good sense of humor. Good luck through out the future. Love ya, Margie

To a very sweet boy. You have a wonderful sense of humor. Best Wishes always. Linda K.

To a real swell guy & sweet pal whom I just love miss & just couldn't let fly right out the door to flight school & stood in line & took luck in stride

Dear Mick,
I wish you the best of luck in the year to come you'll need them
Best Wishes

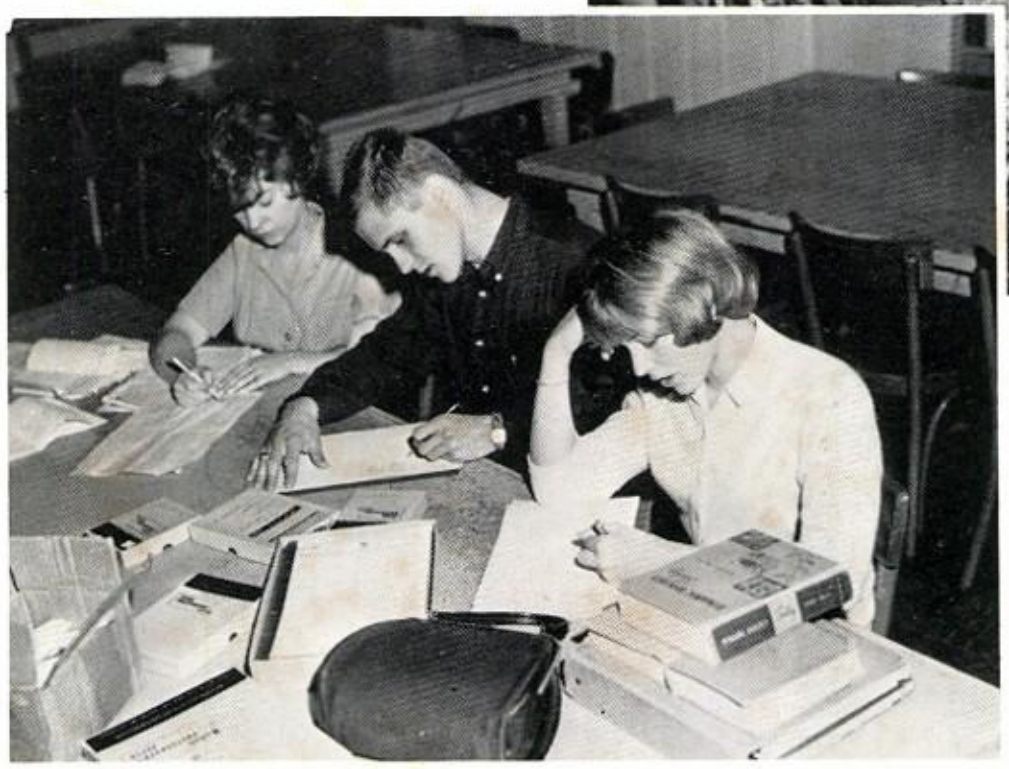
the Annual Staff



This year we have tried to create your yearbook with a new and different approach. From cover to cover, we have tried to bring back the memories of all activities and events of the 1963-64 school year, and we truly hope that you will enjoy the excitement, the tears, and the laughter that follow on these pages of your Lamar.

And so, WE PROUDLY PRESENT---

Dedication

To our annual sponsor, without whom we would have no '64 LAMAR, to our superb art teacher who was always a friend to students and fellow teachers alike, to someone who was here only several years but someone who was liked by everyone and is always welcome back, to Miss Bobbie Jo Ivy, we very proudly dedicate the 1964 LAMAR.

What you are is God's gift to you;

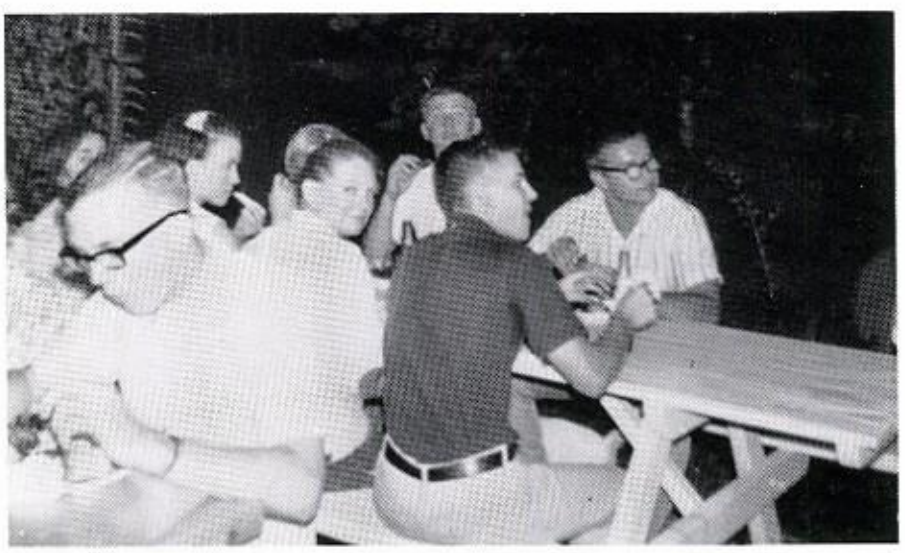
Hail Seniors '64!!!

Don't pout, Janet. You can have more food.

Girls! Aren't you ashamed?

Wish we had something to go with the ketchup.

Aren't we pretty in the morning!



See something, Lester?

Mr. Rabbit had plenty of help this year.

It seems that the seniors never stop eating.

Quit eyeing the dessert, Carolyn.

What you become is your gift to God.

Memorial to Martin Reinke

January 1, 1947 - October 26, 1963

"We cannot control our fates, nor the accidents that mar them, but we can guide our own reactions to them. We can make grief the cause of rebellion, or of self-reproach, or we can make it a time of shared grief and sympathetic hope, saying like Job: "The Lord has given, the Lord has taken, blessed be the name of the Lord."

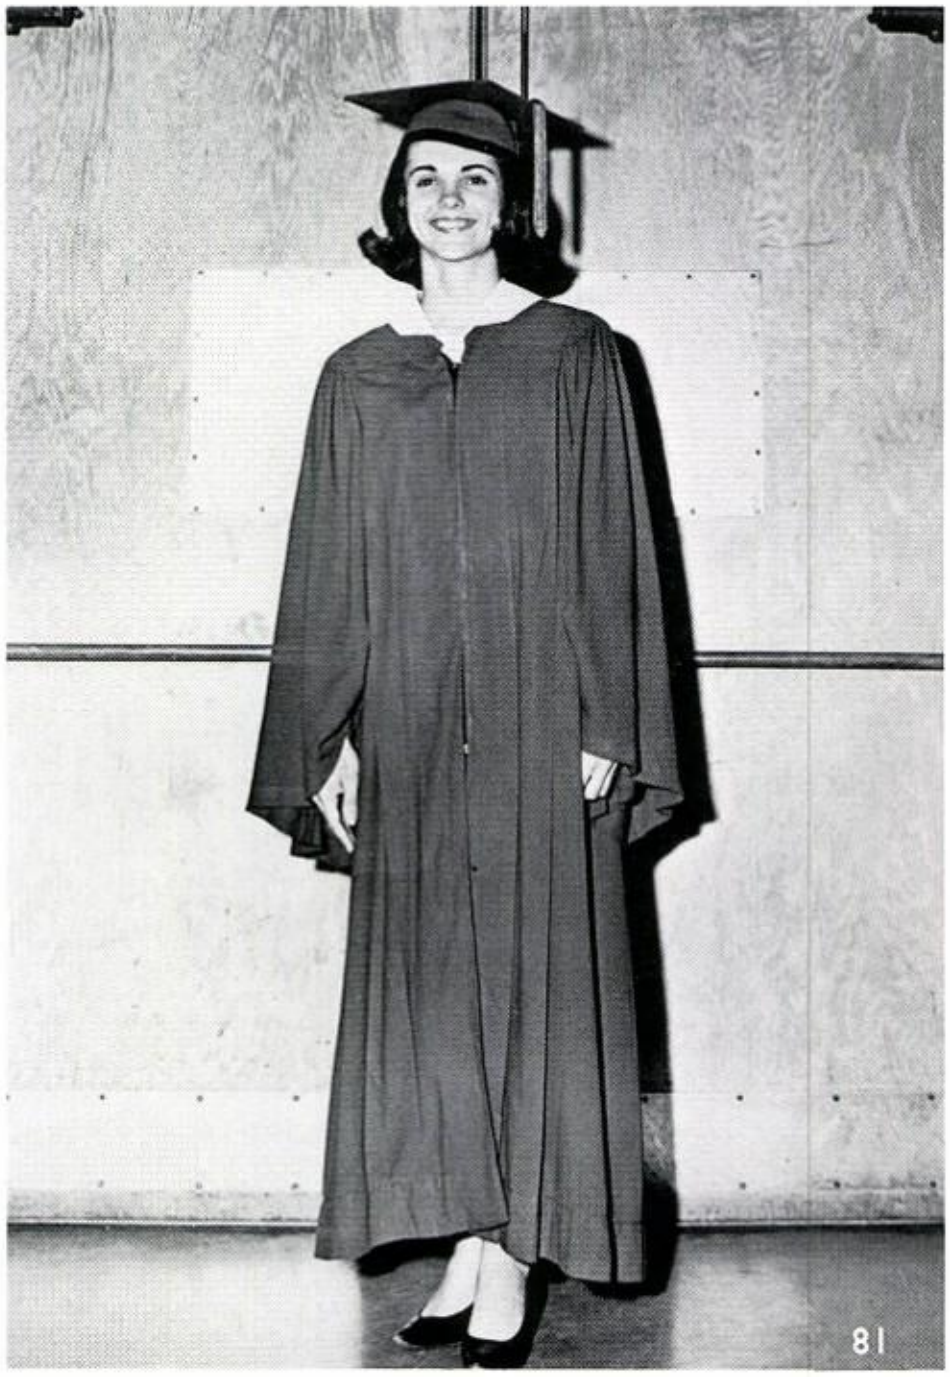
Top Student

Doris Ann Hubenak



ENGLISH

Doris Hubenak and
Muffett Stone

These students share this honor because both have proved themselves to be industrious, capable, and cooperative girls. They, out of a class of 35, were the only two to maintain a straight A average throughout the entire year.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Muffett Stone

This student was chosen because of her outstanding scholastic work, her enthusiastic approach to outside work, her attention given in class, her obvious enjoyment in learning about the subjects, and her attempted use of the knowledge gained.

MATH

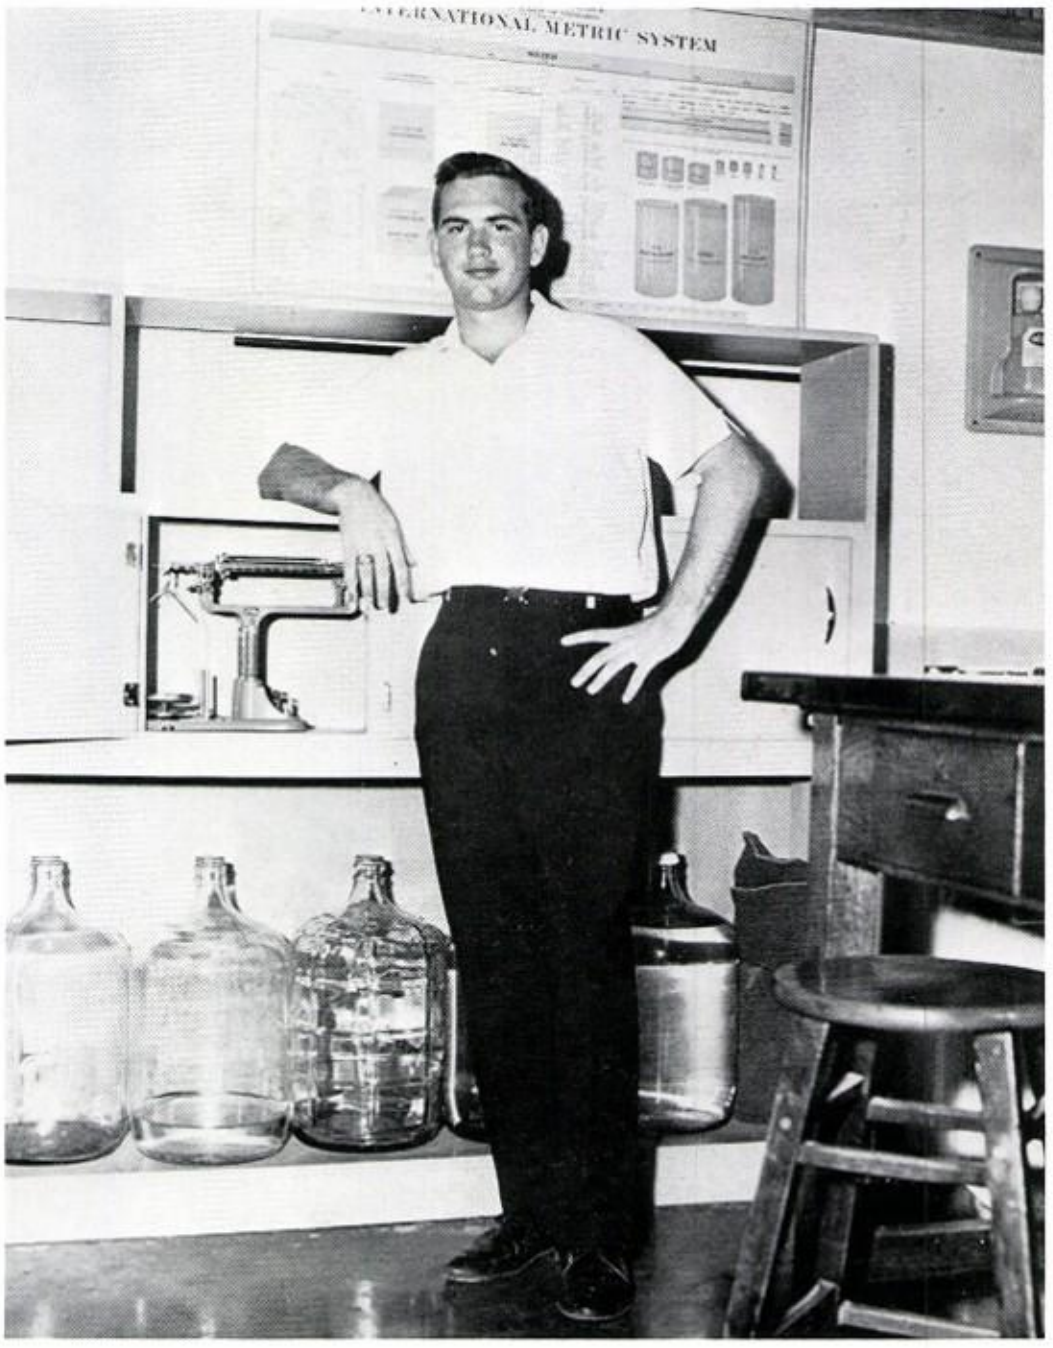
James Luksa

This student maintained a very high average throughout his four years of math. Besides this, he used his math well in his work with science.

SCIENCE

Claude Speed

Besides making very high grades in his science classes, this student made a very high grade on the UIL Science Contest. He was the only student from Lamar to be accepted for the NSF summer Institute. He also made the highest grades of any senior who has had at least three years of science on the Iowa test of Education Development, on the NMSQT, and on the ACT.



ATHLETICS

Darrell McNutt

During his four years in high school, this student participated in football, basketball, track, baseball, and golf. He made All-District in both football and basketball, and he received an honorable mention to All-State football. This year he was named the Outstanding Back of our football team. Also this year, he went to Regional in track, doing the broad jump. He also served as captain of the golf team.

ATHLETICS

Joy Vasek

This "little tiger" has made our tennis team and our school very proud. She has played tennis for four years and has come home with many, many medals and trophies. She won Regional both this year and last year. Also last year, she placed second in State.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Ray Ramirez

This student was chosen because he was respectful, prompt, dependable, and he had a fine attitude. He maintained an A average, he rated high on his physical fitness tests, he carried out class leadership assignments, and he always suited out for his physical education classes.

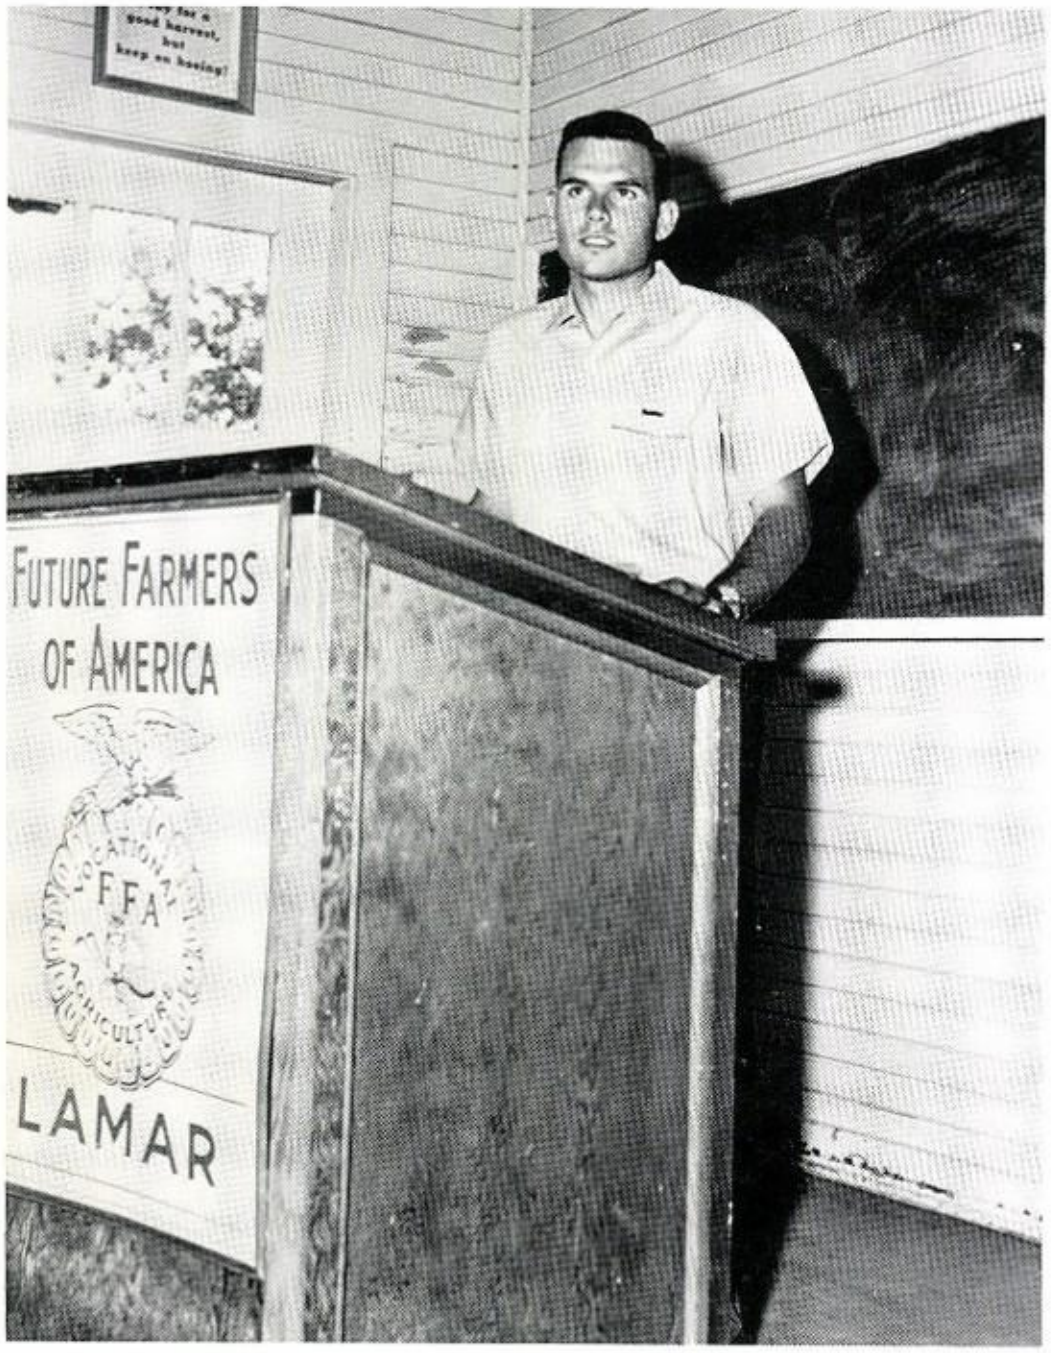
Marguerite Hardcastle

This student was chosen as the outstanding physical education girl for her excellent participation and cooperation. She was always ready and willing to offer her help and follow instructions.



AGRICULTURE

E. A. Reeh

This year he received the Lone Star Farmer Award, and last year he was chosen by the Rosenberg Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture as the outstanding Vocational Ag student at Lamar. He was Treasurer of District 3, and he was the Chapter Farmer President. In his sophomore year he was Chapter Farmer Vice-President, the Star Chapter Farmer, and the winner of the Lions Club exam in Agriculture. In his freshman year he was our Greenhand President. In his four years he has had twenty livestock projects.

HOME ECONOMICS

Jan McDonald

This student has had three years of homemaking and has excelled in the area of clothing. She is a member of the Future Homemakers of America. Also, in 1962, she was our delegate to the State meeting.

ART

Linda Schiller

This student has made all A's in art, and she won the Lions Club Art Award. Also, she was chosen because of her good attitude, which is partly due to the fact that she likes art very much, and she enjoys doing artwork.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

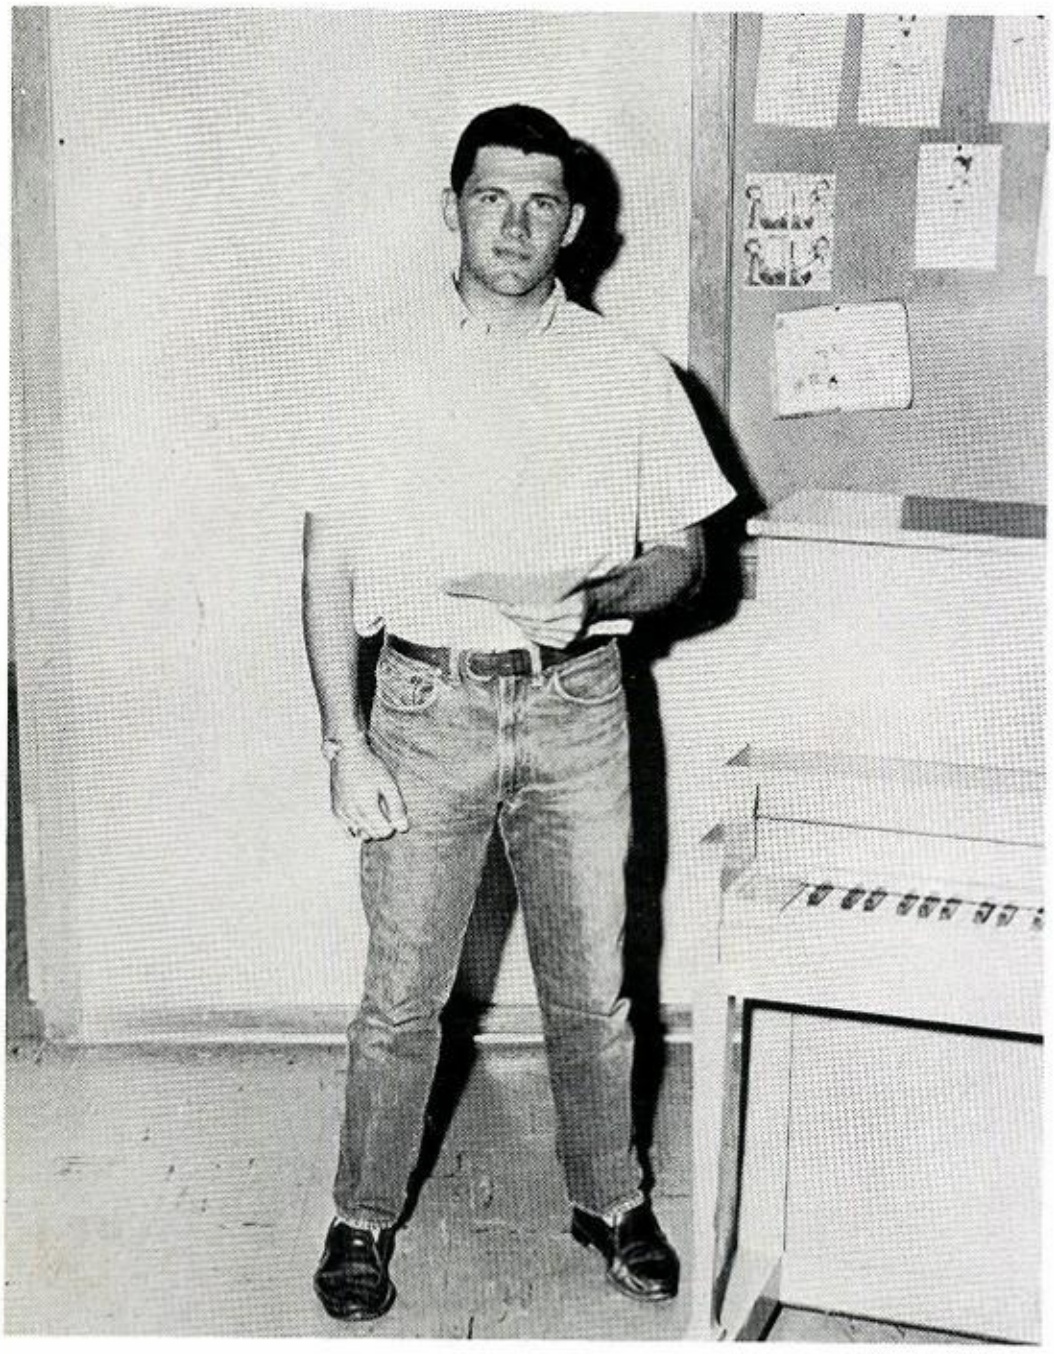
Gayle McNutt

This girl was in competition with five boys for the Lions Club award in Mechanical Drawing, and she was the winner. She entered in the state-wide competition of designing a building to display as her industrial arts project. Also, she plans to major in architecture.

BAND

Muffett Stone

This student was a member of the A Band for four years, and she was a twirler for two years; she was also a member of the Stage Band. This year she was Head Twirler, and she received the John Sousa Award because of her excellent music ability and participation. She made the All-District Band two years. She was the best musician in the Band, she was an excellent team worker, and she was the top soloist.



CHOIR

Butch Carden

He was chosen for this honor because of his outstanding ability and vocal accomplishments during his last three years. He has contributed much toward the success of the choral program because of his ability to lead and influence others to do their best. He made the All-Regional Choir two years, he was President of the Choir for two years, and he received the Lions Club Choir Award.

COMMERCIAL

Janet Self

Janet won the Lions Club Bookkeeping Award last year and the Lions Club Shorthand and Office Practice Awards this year. This year she won first in the District Shorthand competition and went on to compete for Regional. She was chosen also because of her fine attitude, dependability, effort, study habits, self-reliance, and willingness to help.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Doris Hubenak

Doris has had three years of Spanish, and she was selected as the outstanding foreign language student because of scholarship, ability, and interest.

SPEECH

Kerry Kiecke

Kerry participated in all phases of Speech-Drama this past year. He participated in Interscholastic League, in Drama as stage manager, lighting, props and set construction, and actor. He did outstanding work as stage manager and as moderator of the Debate Team. He demonstrated outstanding qualities of leadership, maturity, dependability, and effort. He kept an A average and showed the greatest interest in Speech Department activities all year.

Lamar Cheerleaders

We are certainly proud of our cheerleaders, for they placed first in yell competition at cheerleading school. They, of course, led us through a fine season of yells. They helped us have another year of the "good ol' Lamar spirit."

The Lamar Student Council always plays an active part in school life. We witnessed this during the past year by their sponsorship of fire drills and their solution to the parking problem.

Our student council is concerned not only with campus conditions, but also with conditions existing in our school district. This year they participated in the formation of the Good Sportsmanship League with other schools in the district.

Last, the student council is always striving for betterment. A Lamar delegation attended the Gulf Coast Student Council Association in Clear Creek to see what steps other schools are taking toward this end.

LLOYD HARTMANN

Lloyd received the M.B. Lamar Speaker Award with his oration on Mirabeau B. Lamar, Champion of Texas Education. The oration was presented in a contest sponsored by the Sons of the Republic of Texas. He received $25 and a chance to compete in the state-wide contest in Houston.

Tony participated in the Optimist Oratorical Contest. Locally, he won the Optimist Club Speaker Award, speaking on "Optimist Club Speaker Award, speaking on "Optimism, Formula for Freedom." Tony then won first place at the district contest and went on to compete at the state-wide contest in Houston.

The Lamar High Band brought home top honors from the Band Festival held in Enid, Oklahoma. Among the honors, it was named as the outstanding concert band and was named the sweepstakes winner.

In addition, band members won 53 medals for solos and ensembles. And the Tri-State Band members also came out on top in their division.

Muffet Stone

Muffet, Claude, and Sammy were presented major awards at the Band Banquet. Muffet received the John Philip Sousa Award, the highest award given by bands.

Claude and Sammy both received the Arion Award. All are outstanding bandsmen and should be congratulated on a fine job.

Future Farmers of America Banquet

Glenn receives his award.

The jolly homemaking girls

The Lamar Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, sponsored by Dr. Travis Reese, is a state chartered organization. The chapter is composed of all vocational agriculture students and other interested students. This outstanding club won a 'Superior' rating in the National Chapter Rating Contest in which over 100 chapters participated, and was third in this area this year.

The outstanding vocational agriculture student was Glenn Rinn. Glenn won the Star Chapter Farmer Award for best records, the Lions Club Award, and the Rosenberg Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Outstanding Vocational Agriculture Student Award for his outstanding achievements: he is a straight A "Ag" student.

Other students receiving awards were James Rankin, Farm Electrification and Larry Sebesta, Forney Art Welding.

Honorary Chapter Farmers were Mrs. George A. Reading, Mrs. Travis Reese, Mrs. Roy Brumbelow, Mrs. Joe A. Wessendorff, and Mrs. A. P. George.

Mr. Rogers was the speaker at this year's banquet. The awards were presented to Glenn Rinn, and the Honorary Chapter Farmers were presented plaques (Mrs. Syd Davis, Sr. accepted for Mrs. George). Diana Davis was presented as the new Chapter Sweetheart, replacing Linda Schiller.

Recuperating from chemistry class at a party.

The "A" Band plays for assembly.

Hail Lamar High!

Another one of those breath-taking games.

At least they could pass the physical-fitness test.

Who moved the basket?

Whistle (blow) while you work.

Don't you know what it is either, Miss Majors?

And just where were you boys during halftime?

Everyone looks so innocent, except Sue, of course!

It's almost like flying!

Cole, is this your first or second childhood??

Does the piano sing soprano or alto??

Camera shy, Weldon? Beverly's not!

I bet she makes straight
A's in chemistry!

a rotten egg!

Well, if it isn't Danny Slavinski on the other team!

Sammy and Edward, don't look so happy;
Gary is scared of heights!

"She's got the whole world in her hands??"

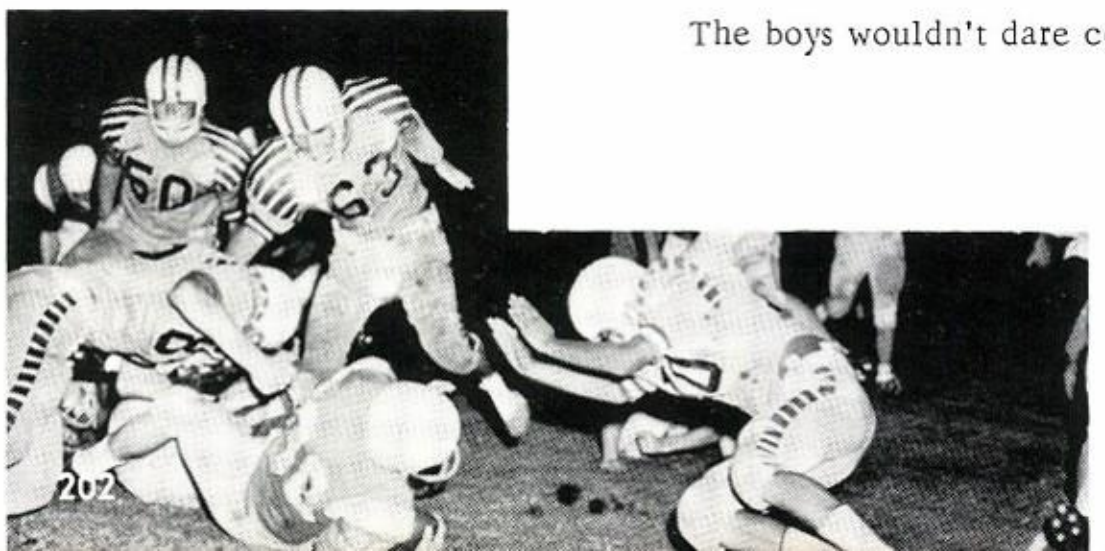
Bobby and five girls? -- Watch out, girls!

The boys wouldn't dare come out now!

Oops! Excuse us!



Allah, allah

Come on, Doris, don't be afraid to show your face just when the going gets tough.

"Trust the man who wears the star."

Some people have to do it all.

"All the way under the chin, Anne Marie."

"Oh, for crying out loud!"

Max: Hey, Goldilocks, we see you eating our porridge!

Don't do anything wrong; Gaye is taking notes!

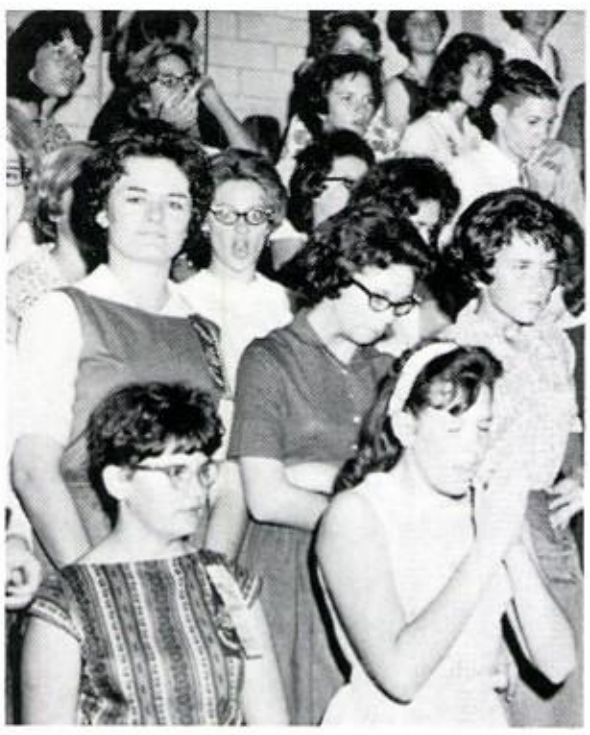
Well, that's one down. Let's hurry before Dr. Kildare comes in.

One chopstick and three sombreros??

Hey! That's a good idea.

Are you sure he's supposed to go in there?

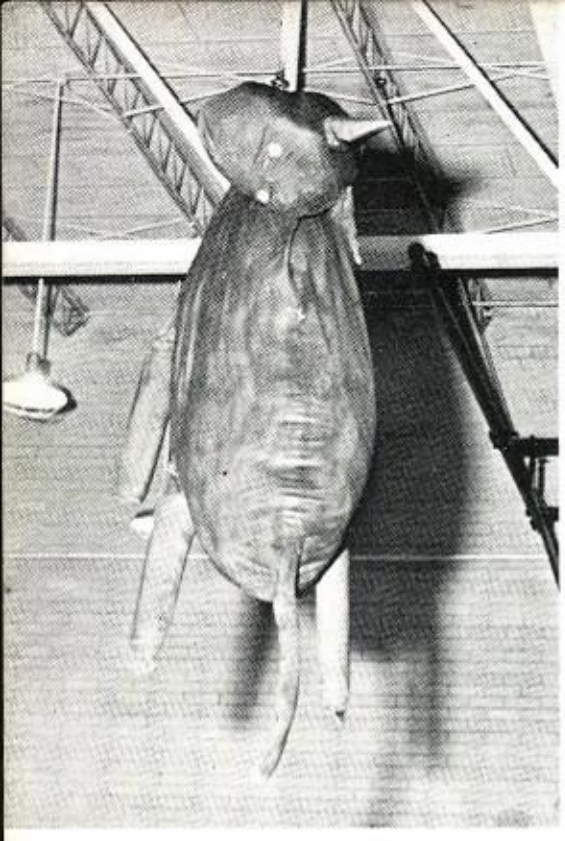
Ginny: No, I don't want to laugh in this picture because I'll make a funny face!



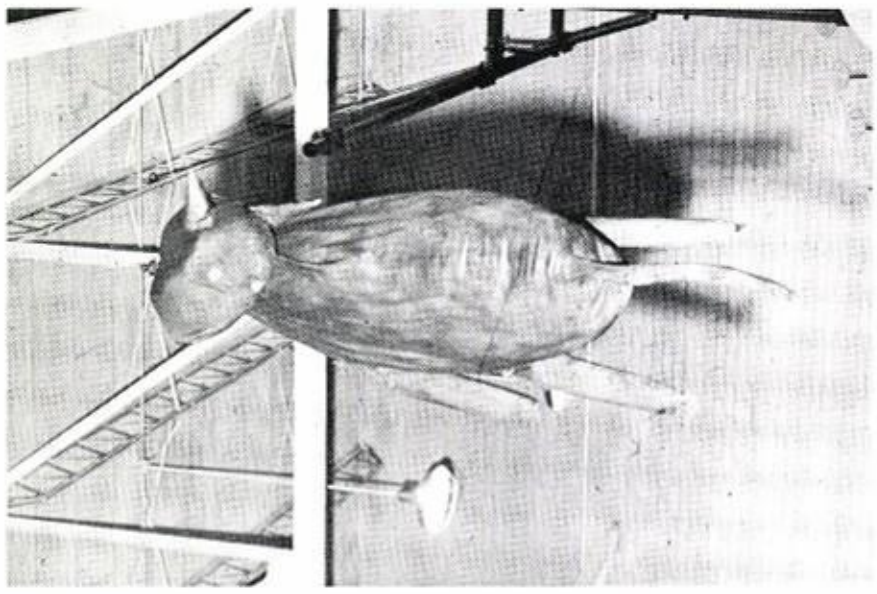
Since one is sick and one is scared, one is praying!

One Hartmann coming up--medium well.

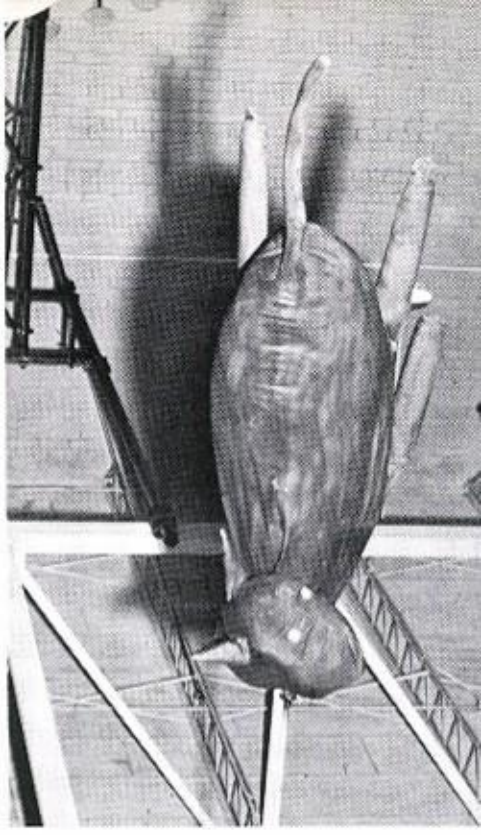
Carole Sue is going to think it over, and then she'll tell you all about it!



Well ------

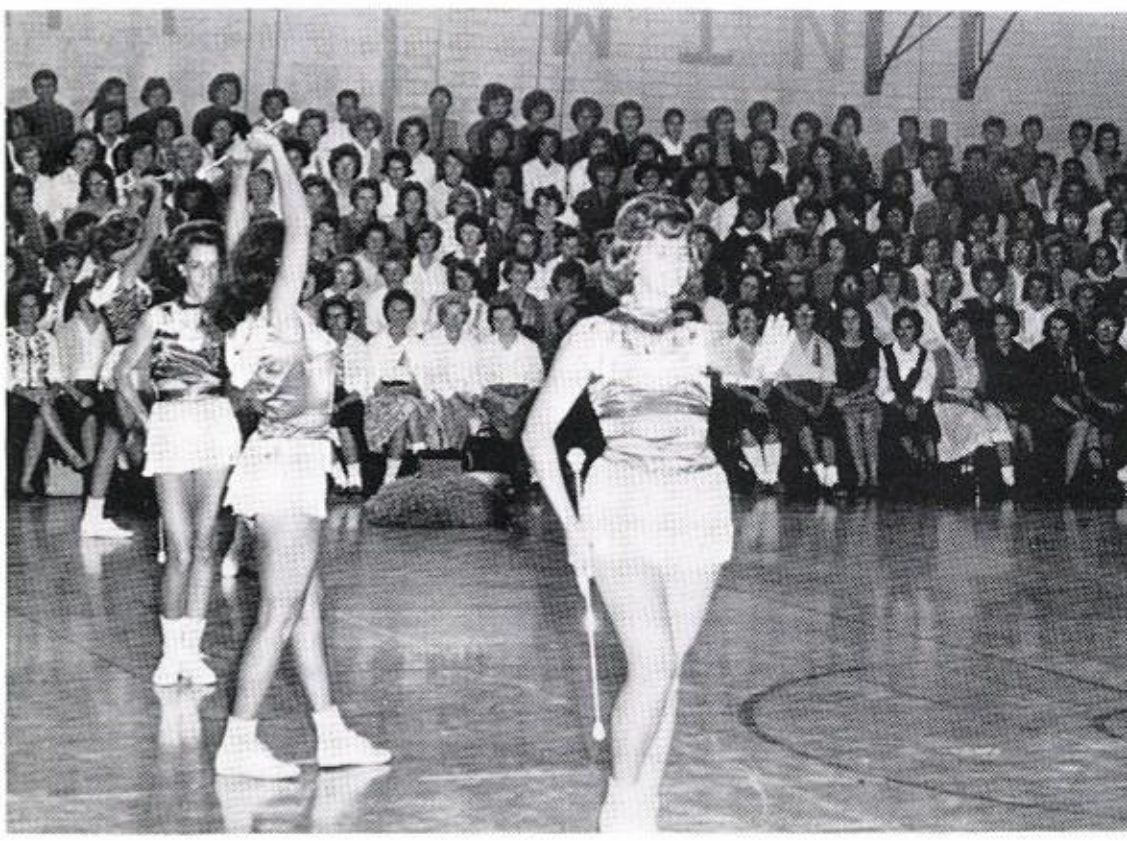


anyway you put it ------



we got a black cat!!

If Mama had her eyes open, she would slap your hand!



Oh, Reada, your fingernails are lovely!

What's the matter, Peggy, can't your neighbor hit the right note?

Well, Beverly, the camera can't hear!!

And it's a field goal!

It's the trumpet kleenex test!!

Good ole Joe has to wave to the other players!

How did Mr. Nicosia get to be your director?

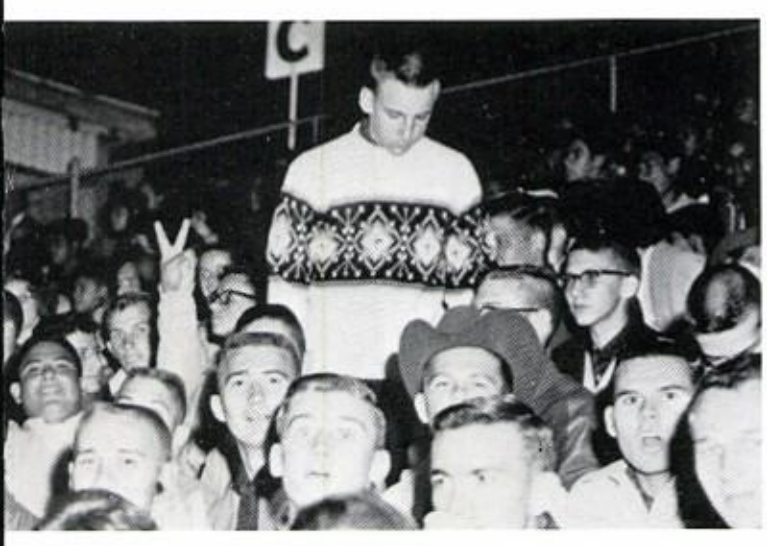
We know you're proud of walking straight, but you're not even on the line!

O.K., Rudy, but two what?

Who says school is all studies and no fun?!

Get the ball, Shirley, but don't slice her face!

"And uh . . ."



Edward should get Color Queen because of his school spirit!

Those Russian women just think they've got us beat!

We have a game to play, and Butch is playing patty-cake!

Ready, set, jump!

If I can just have a five minute nap, I'll make it through the pep rally!

Oh, Elaine, how can you smile at a time like this?

Those handcuffs are rough!

Don't hold your breath, Gary is going to elbow you in the stomach!

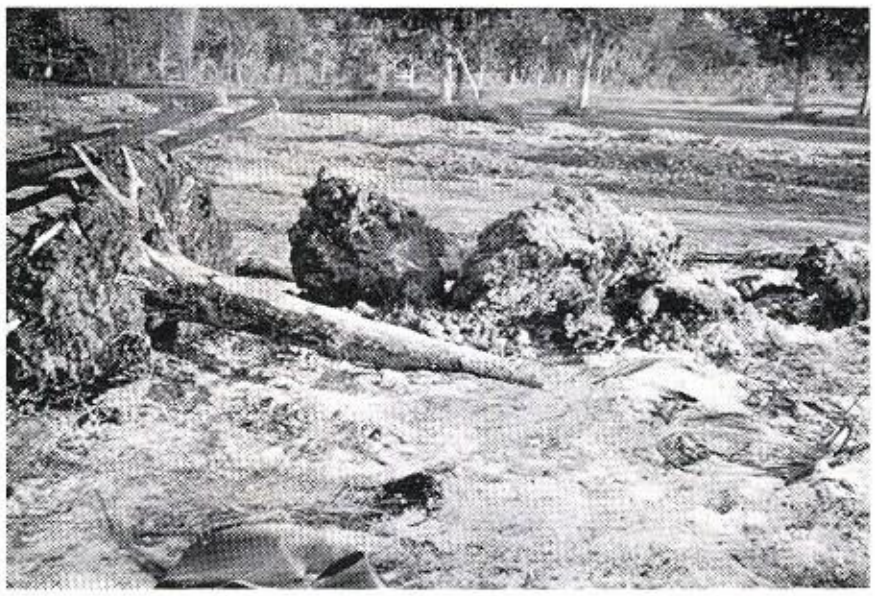
What's the matter, Patti, do you have a problem, or is it all these other people? Hi, Anna!

OH, OH--Be careful about your manners, Betty and David are upset.

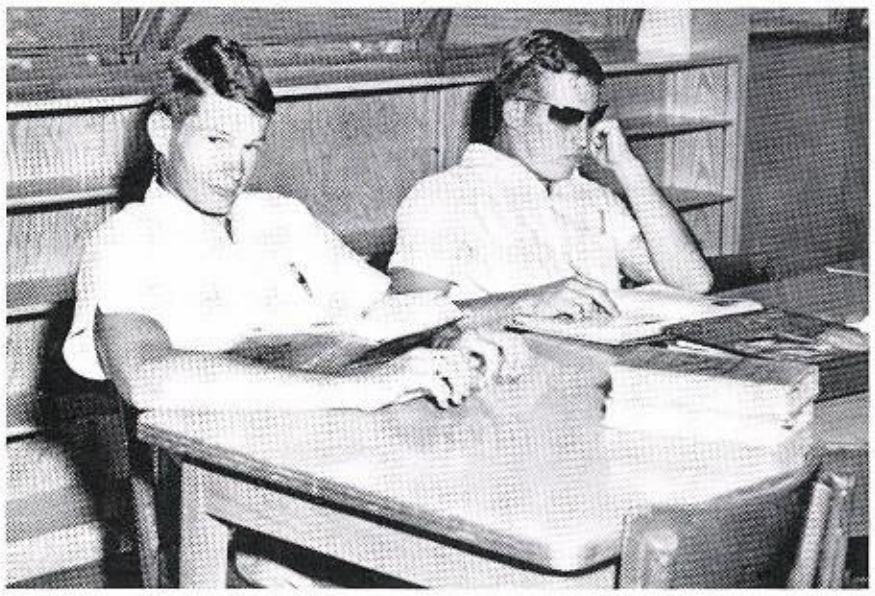
Let's all blow ten notes and then scratch our left ears!

That's not fair; somebody is tickling my left toe!

Don't just stand there, Georgia. Do something!



The charred remains of the bonfire.



We have loads of energy, but why waste it on studying?

Come on, girls, we're still ahead!

The girls are in their usual pose.

"Where'd Cole go?"

"Look," said Chicken Little, "the sky is falling."

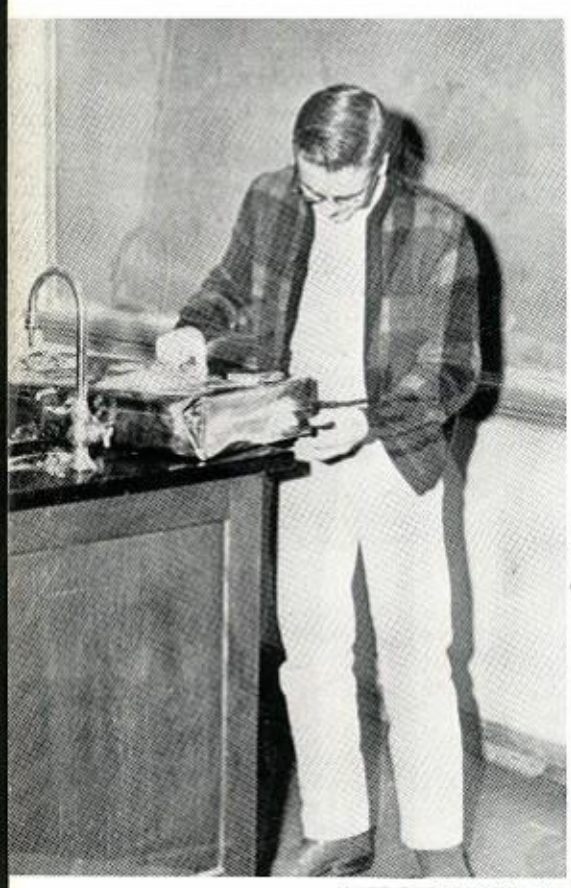
You've got your cue card backwards.

What a debate!

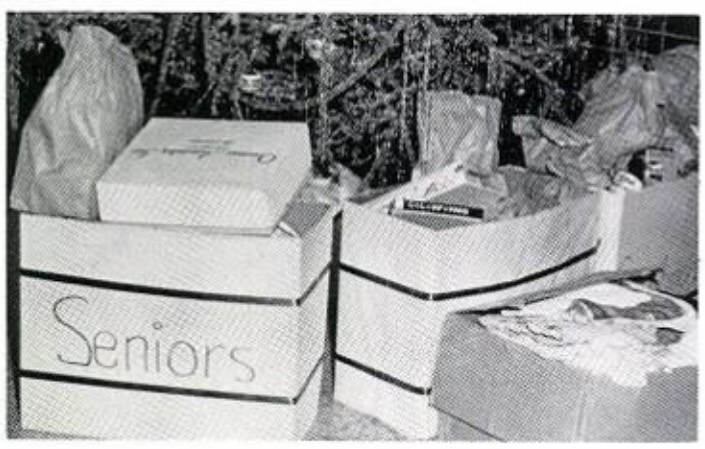
Wait your turn; he's mine.

'Chief Wayne' and his snow dance!?

"And this, ladies, is the latest in our new Alvin rainwear."



Ready ----



Doris and Sharon, that's great fighting spirit, but you're on the same team!

Get set ----

Grrrr!

(And they say Physics is a hard class!)

What's the matter, Janis, did you forget to shave?

"It's the 1/4 inch that makes the difference."

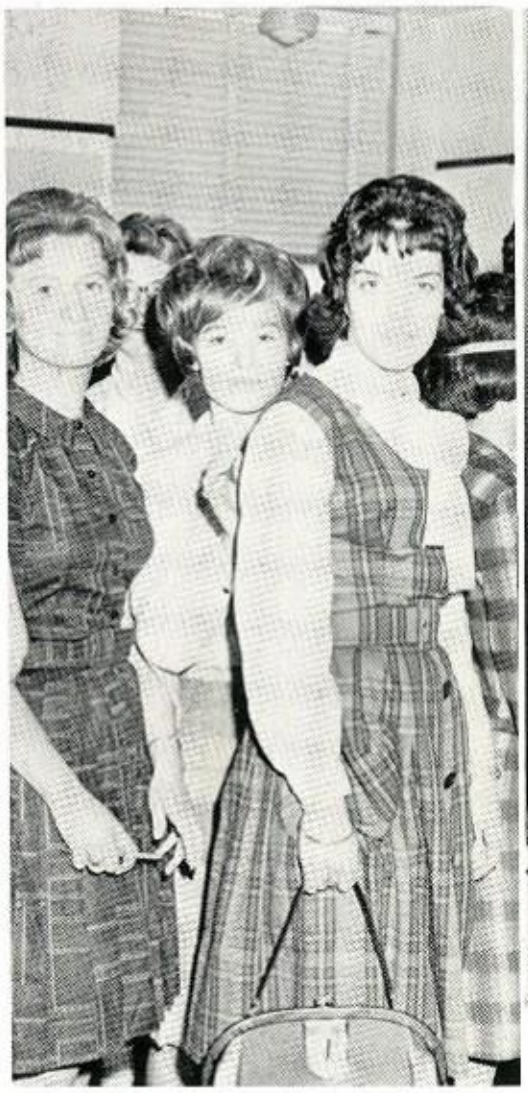
"According to the principles of Anderson's theory ----"

The Selective Service

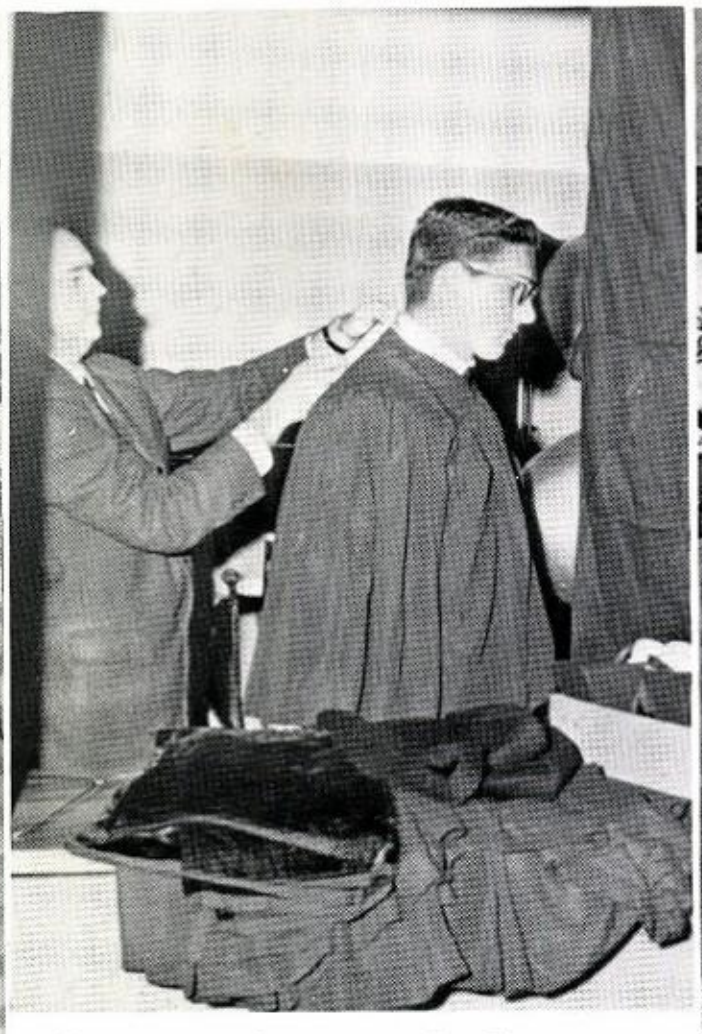
Only YOU can prevent forest fires.

I am not eight feet tall!

A hypnotizing mike!

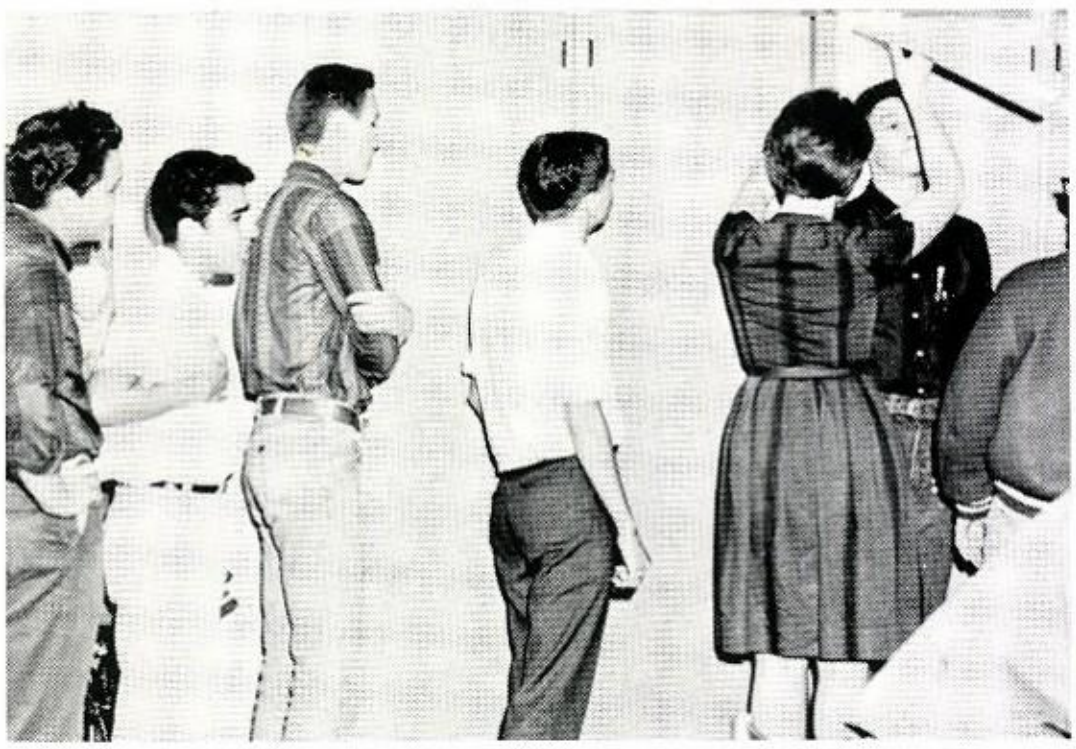


May I have this dance, Elaine?



How many times must I tell you to wear your bib when you eat?!

It's a cinch those three weren't supposed to be in the picture!



Graduating gets me right here.

Awwwww, you're bigger than I am!

When I was hemming my skirt, I caught my hand.

"Mr. Stevens, Help me get my finger out of my eye!"

And Darrell even does the ballet!

Randy is so excited that he's floating on air.

Ooh, Cheryl, you have such soft hands!

Allan: Okay, who put the bug in my pop-corn?

Polygrip really holds your teeth together, doesn't it?

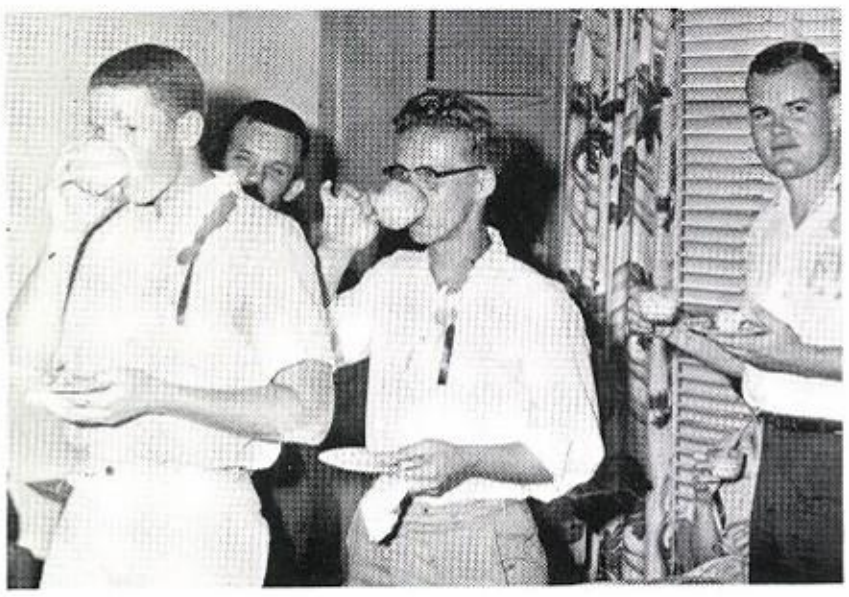
Attending an assembly in the new auditorium.

Our group had twenty-one per cent fewer cavities.

Me sleepy at 6:00 in the morning?

Will the real Mr. Magoo please stand up?

There were two eskimos sitting on an iceberg . . .



They're not deaf, Joe.
They're just ignoring you.

Who's holding the camera?

Cathy, is it really that bad? Or do you want to lose all those books?

Here we come. Ready or not!

Quit hitting me, 24. That ball is mine!

Luksa thinks he is a Cassius Clay, too.

You can wake up now, Tommy.

Just one girl with all those boys? That's pretty good odds.

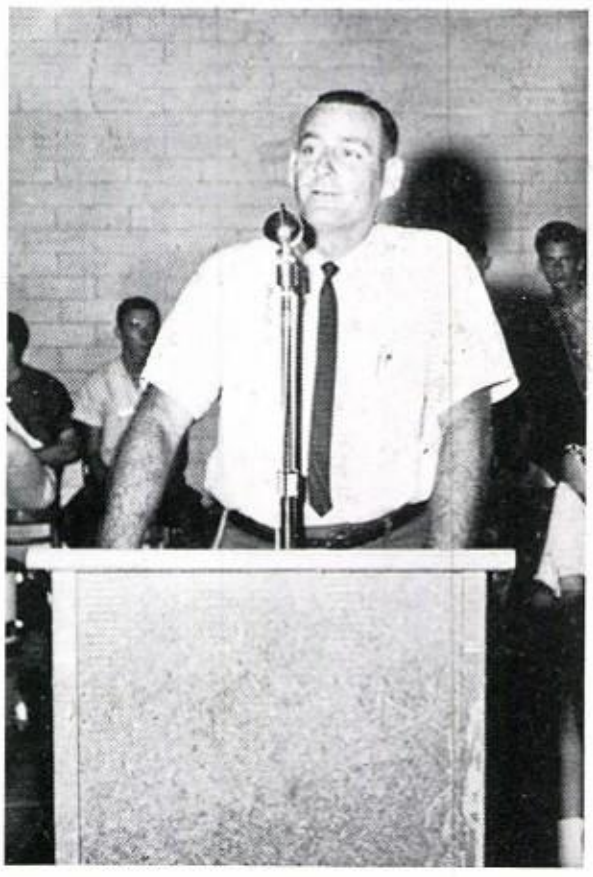
Does Lamar always have to be in the minority?

Ellen, it's not that embarrassing; is it?

It's a new type of Hootenanny!

His work is so secret he doesn't even know what he is doing!

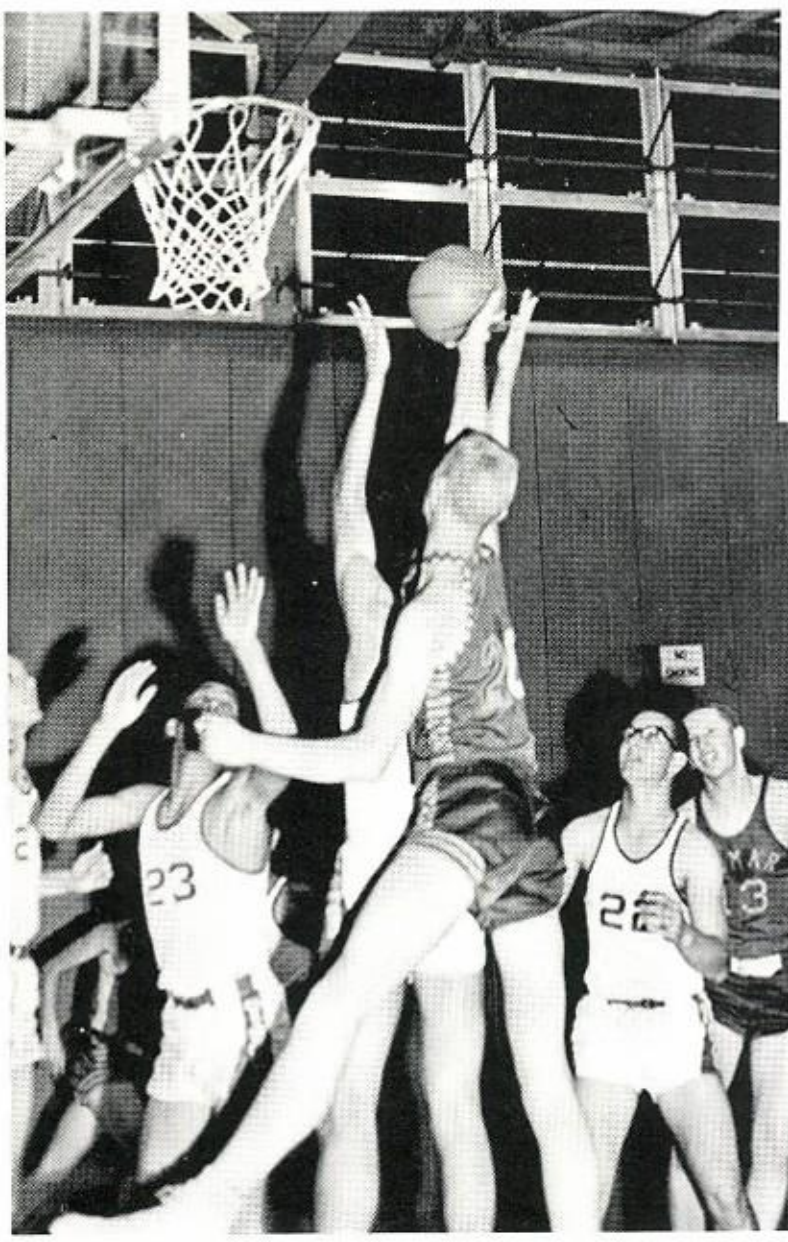
There's enough violence on television, Honor.



"Once upon a time there was this tiny football player named James Luksa . . .

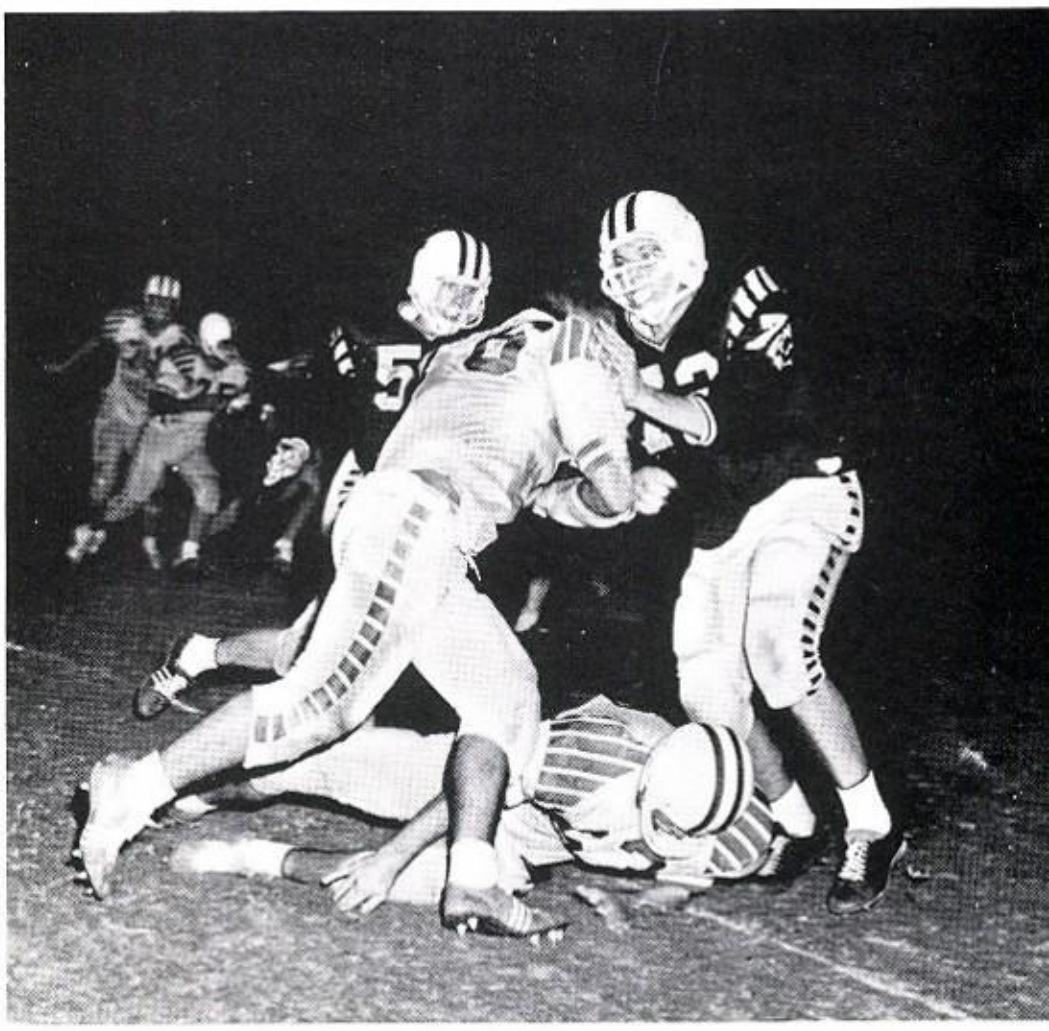
Hal, you're not supposed to watch the camera. It's not leading you!

Our Lost Librarian



Doggone! Joe gets all the luck.

Your friend and mine.



You can't have him. He's mine!

Randy may be leading, but Darrell sure is trying!

Be careful, Tom! A Democrat is behind you.

She is casting a spell on you, Pat.

Twenty minutes more and it will be over, Chase.

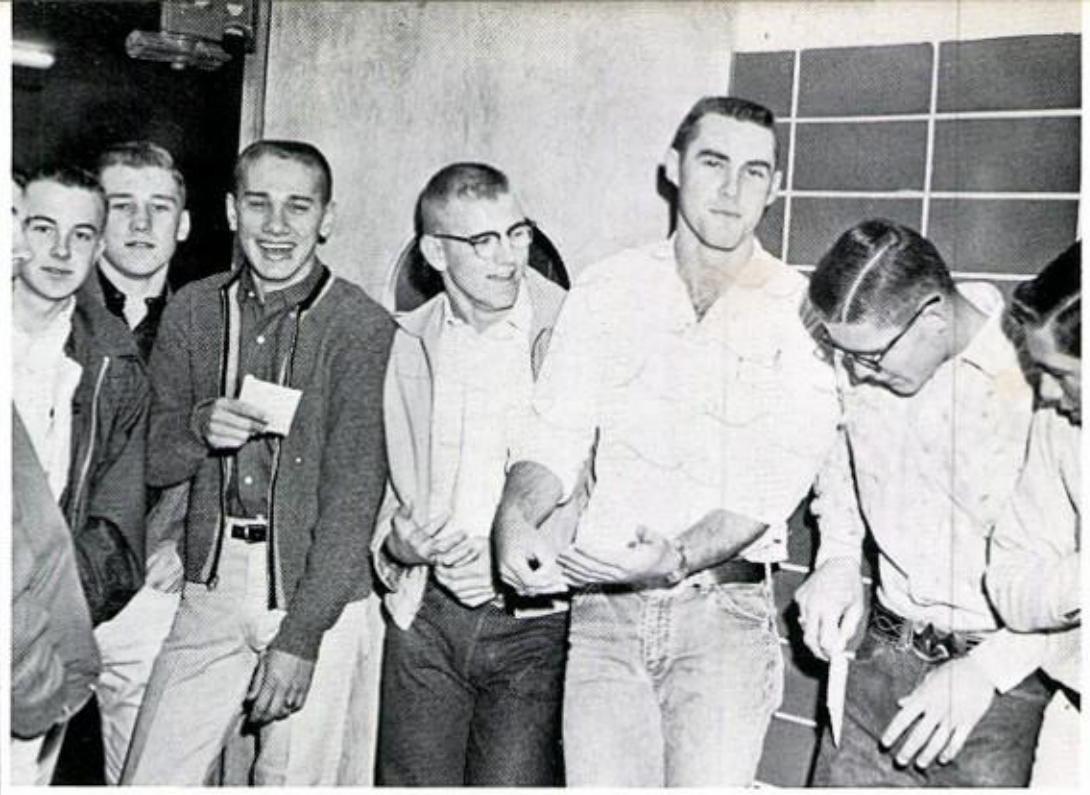
I'll head him off at the pass.

Whoever he is, he must be pretty important. He has his own private apple box.

We all have something in common - five fingers on one hand!



Boy, I wish I had a Mickey Mouse watch like Lee's.

See there, I told you I looked like Elizabeth Taylor!

Oh, good! Lamar for supper!

You think of your own caption for this one!

To Mickey
You are the sweetest little neighbor anyone could ever ask for.
Barbara C.

Dear Mickey,
It's been great fun being your neighbor and classmate.
And it wouldn't quite be the same for anything. You are always coolest, greatest people I have ever known and I hope we be good friends. I wish the best of luck with future & wish you lots of luck with Female problems and also wish you would stop flunking
at my window.
HA!
Anyway ... with lots of love
Suzanne
Marcelli

Mickey,
Your a real great
boy although for a while I never would have said so! I think that if you are going to stay
my neighbor we had better
kiss the windows!
Best of luck always!
May God Bless You!!
Lots of Love
Linda Lorenz

Dear Mick,
You're the top clodot in Samoa.
I have enjoyed having you as a friend in Eng 111 and now in World History if we don't get kicked out for laughing at you!
Love Ya,
Peter

Mick,
I think you are one of the funniest guys I know. I hope you can work out all of your problems. If you could understand them, that would help, but you're so dumb!!!
Love,
Pam

THAT'S IT!

As we have said, we tried to create this yearbook with a new and different approach, and we certainly hope you have enjoyed and will enjoy it each time you turn the pages of your 1964 LAMAR.

Dear Mickey,
To a real crazy and cute (HA HA) boy." Just for you, were going to have those windows raised. One thing I like about you, you complement everyone on everything just because they aren't very good ones. thats O.K.

Mickey,
You've made homeroom seem a little less boring than it has to be, — you have a great personality and you're real cute, sweet boy!!!

Good Luck Always, Mickey, you are a swell guy. please stop writing Finkall over my Science book. you use one of the cutest boys in the Sophmore class. What is "W order Wart Hog" suppose to mean. H.H. H.H.
I hope we will always be good friends. Best of luck always,
Love ya,
Lynda

Dear Mickey,
To a really great guy,
may you always stay as nice and crazy as you are. Remember the "Lemonade and the "Fuzz"; that was a wild night
Best of Luck to you Always,
Lynn
